National Executive Committee so Reports at Chicago Meeting

COMMITTEE OPPOSED TO A COMPROMISE

Vote of the Party at the November Election Totaled 1,746,000—Thirty-Six States Represented at the Conference—Demand That Tariff be Eliminated as a Political Issue—Recent Campaign in the South Cited as Showing That Organization Made Distinct Gains—Prominent Leaders of the Party Present at the Conference at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—The Progressive party will nominate a candidate for president in 1916. Its campaign of education will be continued on the lines laid down in 1912. The party will offer no compromise, either to Republicans or Democrats, except on the one essential that the tariff must be removed from national politics.

The facts enumerated are concretely declared in a formal statement issued by George W. Perkins and Oscar King Davis, chairman and secretary, respectively, of the national executive committee, at the Blackstone Hotel, at 8 o'clock last night, as the declaration of the executive committee. The committee and other leading Progressives, representing thirty-four states, held a conference here yesterday.

Those at the Meeting
Present at this meeting were these: George W. Perkins, of New York; William Flinn, of Pennsylvania; Harold Ickes, proxy for Miss Jane Addams, of Illinois; Medill McCormick, proxy for Joseph M. Dixon, of Montana; Clarence P. Dodge, proxy for Meyer Leasing, of California; William Allen White, proxy for George C. Priestly, of Oklahoma; Irving K. Taylor, proxy for Charles H. Thompson, of Vermont; and Walter Brown, of Ohio.

Total of 1,746,125 Votes Cast
O. K. Davis presented a tabulation of the votes of the party in the November election, showing a total of 1,746,125, divided as follows:

New England states, 70,171; middle Atlantic states, 311,290; south Atlantic, 78,736; middle west, 624,722; western states, 867,199. Only three southern states, Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana, were included in the total.

Official Statement
The official statement issued by Chairman Perkins and Secretary Davis follows:

"The executive committee of the Progressive party heard reports as to general conditions and as to the state of organization work throughout the country. Ninety-one representatives from thirty-four states were present. It was found that in the thirty-seven states where the Progressive party had tickets in the field at the last election it polled an aggregate of more than 1,750,000 votes.

National Committee Jan. 15
"To that end, the committee provided that the Progressive national committee shall be called together not later than January 15, 1916, to fix the time and place for holding the national convention of the Progressive party, and to transact such other business as may at that time come before it incidental to the presidential election of 1916.

"The industrial depression and consequent reaction against the Democratic tariff was undoubtedly the issue which primarily determined the reactionary results of the recent election. Both the Democratic and Republican parties have passed tariffs by the old method of log rolling, and the people have now successively re-judiated them both. So long as the tariff is made in politics by log rolling, there can be no stability of industrial conditions and business can have no peace.

"The way to provide stable industrial conditions and business peace is to accept the principle of protection as a fixed national policy, and to take the tariff out of politics. The Progressive party specifically declared this doctrine in its platform of 1912, and pointed out the only way to take the tariff out of politics, by the creation of a permanent non-partisan tariff commission."

The first photo play from the World Film, Brady, Shubert corporation will be "The Lure," which will be shown here on Monday night. The cast is the same that played the original production in New York, and the play contains a moral that every one should see. While the play is primarily a white slave piece there is nothing that is in any way objectionable or offensive. Former Police Commissioner Bingham, New York, who was at the opening performance of the play said, "This play presents a wonderful moral lesson. I know that these conditions are true and so does every one in police circles." There will be two performances given, the first one starting at 7 o'clock.

PINCHOT WILL CONTINUE FIGHT

Emphatically Asserts That The Progressives Will Continue

WILL NOT ABANDON FRIENDS

Says the Spirit of the Party is Just as Vigorous and Devotion to Principles Just as Strong as Before the Election—Spent $49,275 in Fight.

Philadelphia, Dec. 3.—Gifford Pinchot, who, as the Washington party candidate for United States senator from Pennsylvania in the recent election, polled more than a quarter of a million votes in the face of the Republican landslide, and ran ahead of A. Mitchell Palmer, Democratic candidate, yesterday emphatically asserted that the Progressive party would continue.

He supplemented this declaration with a statement that he intends to remain in the fight, and will devote all his energies to the cause.

The statements were made in the course of an interview, to which the Progressive leader submitted upon his return to this city from his Florida vacation, and just prior to his departure for Chicago, where he is to attend the national Progressive conference today and tomorrow.

"The first thing is the Progressive conference at Chicago," said Mr. Pinchot, when asked as to his plans for the future. "Of course, there is but one thing for that conference to do, which is to make plans for the continued work of the party."

"One of the things that has most pleased me since the election is that in the immense amount of correspondence from all parts of Pennsylvania which has been coming into my office, there has not been a single letter which advocates giving up the fight."

Won't Abandon Supporters
"So far as I can see, the spirit of the Progressives is just as vigorous and their devotion to the Progressive principles just as strong as before the election. Of course, we have lost here and there a few weak brothers. Personally, I view their departure without regret. We are stronger without them."

"It is interesting to know how little discouragement these letters show. They all of them, except the doubtful ones, attribute the defeat to one reason, but substantially every one looks forward with real anticipation to the next fight."

"For myself, I do not propose to abandon the 270,000 voters who gave me their suffrages in the last election, and as I said on the morning of November 4, win or lose, I will keep on with the fight for the conservation of natural resources for the use of the people against the monopolies."

DUBOIS POLANDER MAY DIE FROM HIS INJURIES

As the result of a fight among some Polanders in DuBois last night about 9:30 one man, John Podolock, is confined to the hospital, where he was operated upon this morning. His condition is serious, and the Courier says the outcome is rather doubtful. Podolock is suffering from a depressed fracture of the skull, four scalp wounds and a broken and lacerated finger. The most serious injury is the fractured skull and three doctors operated upon him about one o'clock this morning.

Just before the operation was performed Andy Sponnick, another Poland, was taken into the presence of Podolock, and was identified as the assailant of the injured man. He was placed in the lockup and will be held, pending the outcome of the wounds he is alleged to have inflicted upon Podolock.

The facts of the fight as nearly as can be learned are as follows: Podolock was in the Nelson house bar shortly before 9 o'clock last night, when Sponnick is alleged to have come in and started to quarrel with him. Sponnick was immediately told to get out of the bar-room and keep quiet. Shortly after this Podolock started for his boarding house. He had not gone far when he was attacked by someone who had a large sized rock in his hands. Whoever the assailant was, he wielded the dornick with good effect, and soon had Podolock down, but not out. The injured man managed to get to his feet and was taken to his home and went to bed.

There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. E. W. Hays, Locust street, Friday evening at 7:30.

Good evening! Better to be poor and happy than be killed in an automobile accident.

All live merchants advertise in the Progress.

Buy a Red Cross Christmas seal and prove your humanity.

There will be a slump in German mustaches after the war is over.

Let your light shine—on the principal streets of the town at night.

Open your heart as well as your pocket book in these pre-Christmas days.

Somebody sometime talked of cleaning up Clearfield, but it must have been a false alarm.

Villa says he will restore order in Mexico; probably he will, after he has killed off all of his enemies.

New York city might petition the president to send federal troops to that city to suppress the gunmen.

Another exhibition of German culture at Rheims, where the archeological museum has been destroyed by shells.

Swimming is likely to be anything but pleasant for the lame ducks which are contemplating a flight to Washington.

After the rain will come the snow, and citizens should familiarize themselves with the provisions of the snow and ice ordinance.

That German spy who was shot to death in London said before his death that he was satisfied, which might also be the opinion of his executioners.

With three kings and a president at the front in the European war the troops ought to be inspired to continue yielding each other with great enthusiasm.

By reading the store advertisements in the Progress the Christmas gift buyer will discover the stores in which such goods are sold at the most reasonable prices.

Oysters that turn pink after being opened are the latest from New Jersey, but there are still some people who turn pale when they think of eating an oyster in the nude state.

Germany demands seven millions of dollars monthly from Brussels as a war indemnity, a sum which would go far toward feeding and clothing the poor Belgians. Germany evidently keeps its humanity locked up in Berlin.

Gifford Pinchot says the Progressive party will continue to stand for the principles for which four million citizens voted in 1912, and our Republican friends can put this in their pipes and smoke it while trying to look pleasant.

Secretary Bryan has the task of his life before him in his attempt to persuade the Democratic party to adopt prohibition, although it is true that the Republicans have made inroads into the ancient Democratic policy of encouraging the disposal of mountain dew.

The Fatherland is rehearsing ancient history to prove that England had been as brutal as Germany is now in the conduct of war. This is true, but it does not excuse Germany for her methods of treating the Belgians or inviting the Mohammedans to participate in the conflict.

PALMER THE JONAH

Some Democratic editors, in belated attempts of the recent election, think that it was folly for the people to expect to defeat Senator Penrose by putting two candidates in the field against him. One editor, parroting the expressions of a higher newspaper editor, says that it was the duty of Gifford Pinchot to withdraw and let Palmer have a free course in the race against Penrose. In view of the fact that Palmer fell short some three thousand votes compared with the number received by Pinchot makes such arguments sound ridiculous. There never was the least chance that Palmer would defeat Penrose, while there was every prospect of Pinchot winning the senatorship had Palmer listened to the voice of the better class of Democrats in the state and retired from the contest. It was Palmer and not Pinchot who aided in the election of Penrose, for thousands of Democrats who voted for Penrose to rebuke Palmer would have voted for Pinchot had Palmer's name not been on the ticket.

However, the election is over and the aftermath cannot have a very sweet taste to Democrats. So far as the Washington party is concerned, it has no apologies to make for the part it took in the campaign. Its members were honestly opposed to Penrose and none of them accepted money from the Penrose managers to help his cause as did many Democrats. What the Democrats of all factions should now do is to forget the late unpleasantness and try to explain to the people why the president and his party in congress hung the millstone of war taxes around the necks of the people of this country.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

Clearfield merchants have prepared for an extensive business during the Christmas holidays and from now until after Santa Claus pays his visits to the kiddies the local stores will be crowded with customers seeking suitable gifts for relatives or friends. And day by day the enterprising merchant will use the advertising columns of the Progress to tell the people where they may buy Christmas gifts to the best advantage. This paper has advised the people to do their Christmas shopping early, and wishes to supplement this advice by telling them to do their Christmas shopping at Clearfield stores which advertise in the Progress. The merchant who wants your trade and does not want you to spend your money with out-of-town stores will be represented in the advertising columns of this paper. It will be to the advantage of the shopper to consult the business directory in this paper before starting out on her trip to the stores.

At this season of the year the mail order houses are especially active in soliciting the trade of the public and their offers of all kinds of goods are very alluring. Many people feel inclined to patronize these catalogue houses, but if they will stop to consider the fact that the mail order house is of no benefit to Clearfield while the local merchant spends most of his profits in helping to build up the town and employs local people as clerks and to do such other work as the merchants have to do they will decide that saving a few cents in a purchase from the mail order house is not a very wise or patriotic act.

Where cutups congregate at night.
The farmer leads a quiet life.
And early bed is his delight.

His social duties make him do it.
The farmer snores till half past three.
Then beats the morning sunrise to it.

While all day long the farmer shovels

The farmer gathers in the crops
And salts three billion bucks away.

FOREST FIRES COST HALF MILLION DOLLARS

Forest fires caused a total loss of $500,000 during the eleven months of 1914, which ended Tuesday, according to estimates by the fire wardens employed by the state forestry commission. Little of the loss occurred on state-owned lands.

Figures compiled by Robert S. Conklin, the commissioner of forestry, show that a total of 231,488 acres had been burned over, but of this large area, only 10,486 acres were on state forestry reservations, although the total state acreage is a little less than 1,000,000.

During the first six months of the year, 4567 acres of state land were burned over and the timber on 67,760 acres of privately owned land was burned. During the last five months, the number of acres of state land burned out was 5929, while 163,230 acres of private land was burned over. The loss for the first six months is estimated at $131,949, and for the last six weeks, when thousands of acres of land were laid bare. These fires are all extinguished. It is estimated that the cost of extinguishing forest fires during the five months ending yesterday was $14,658.75.

The largest areas burned out during the five months' period were in Pike county where 31,000 acres to timber were destroyed; Center, with 13,382; Bradford 12,227, and Westmoreland, 9840.

The estimated area burned over in Clearfield and nearby counties and fire loss from July 1 is shown in the accompanying table:

County	State Land	Private Land	Loss
Blair	5,471	10,710
Cambria	12,227	8,919
Centre	311	13,382	19,924
Clearfield	200	1,342	7,386
Clinton	762	2,589	6,461
Elk	160		670
Indiana	455	2,295
Jefferson	66		300

BANKS WILL RECEIVE BELGIAN RELIEF FUNDS

The citizens of Clearfield are asking for a place of deposit for money which will undoubtedly be given in small amounts for the relief of the Belgian war sufferers. In response to this demand the banks of Clearfield have decided to accept and forward, free of charge, all such funds.

Giving now means Christmas food for Belgian women and children who otherwise may perish from hunger and cold. Hundreds of thousands of these destitute people face starvation and the fatal results of exposure to the harsh winter which already has set "Do it now"—never meant more.

CANADIANS FEAR RAID FROM UNITED STATES

Extraordinary precautions have been taken to guard against possible raid by some German sympathizers across the Niagara river. A permanent guard of 30 militiamen has been stationed at Port Erie opposite Buffalo, and the whole river front from there to Niagara Falls and Queenstown is patrolled day and night by between 600 and 600 members of the newly organized home guard regiments.

Automobiles and motorcycles are used by the men on patrol duty.

These measures, it is said, were taken in response to demands from organizations along the Canadian side of the Niagara, who insisted in communications to the department of militia that a movement similar to the Fenian raid was not a remote possibility.

BRADY TOWNSHIP WANTS NEW STATE HIGHWAY

Brady township people are entertaining hopes that the state highway commission will decide to build the section of road between Luthersburg and DuBois this coming spring. Nearly all the surveying was done several seasons ago and the officials of the department are aware of the importance of this stretch which carries more traffic of various kinds than any six miles in the county, forming as it does the outlet to DuBois and vicinity for the great agricultural townships of Brady, Penn. and also the main route for east and west auto traffic.

SLAUGHTER OF MINERS
IN THE UNITED STATES

Washington, Dec. 2.—That peaceful industry has its horrors as well as war is shown in the casualty list of American mines and quarries for 1913, issued yesterday by the United States bureau of mines. This list gives 3,351 men killed in the year. The number of men injured was not tabulated, but it is estimated that it reaches 100,000.

Altogether in the coal mines, metal mines and quarries 1,047,010 men were employed, and the death rate for each 1,000 men engaged was 3.49, or nearly three and one-half men.

Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, director of the bureau of mines, comes forward with the statement that, taking the hazards of the industry into consideration, this list of death and injury is excessive and unnecessary, and a discredit to the industry and the country.

"With such a gruesome record as has the United States in its mining industry, it is high time something more drastic is done to bring this excessive loss of life down to a basis that will be more favorably comparable with other countries. It can be done; it should be done; and I hope that the American people will see that it is done."

RHEIMS ART MUSEUM DESTROYED BY SHELLS

Paris, Dec. 2.—In an account of the bombardment of Rheims, which has been in progress intermittently for several weeks, the Temps asserts that the "archaeological museum containing Roman Gallic and French collections has been destroyed. Tapastries by Polypersack, the Flemish workman, also were ruined.

"The factories have been damaged to such an extent that the textile industry has suffered greatly. The loss due to the destruction of cloth is estimated at 20,000,000 francs ($70,000,000).

SAGE TEA DANDY
TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair back to its natural color and make it shine again if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old-fashioned Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggy and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your lock becomes luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the way of youth. Gray-haired unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

Get a Set of 6 Initial Tumblers

These are the new thin blown glasses that represent the greatest advance in the glass working art. Blown from the best quality of lead glass, with your own initials blasted upon the side with the new process of sand blowing in which thousands of grains of sand are shuttled against the sides of the glasses; decorated with a beautiful wreath encircling the initial, applied in the same manner as the initial, they represent absolutely the last word in table ware. They are luxurious and beautiful in the extreme, though very expensive and difficult to obtain, except in a few of the metropolitan cities. These tumblers have been manufactured to supply the highest grade trade and anybody will appreciate the opportunity of obtaining a set of them under the terms of the premium offer.

The one feature of these tumblers that is especially interesting, and which supplies the reason we are enabled to extend this remarkable premium offer, lies in the fact that they are made in accordance with the latest patented non-chip rim. The fact that a tumbler with an edge, which is protected from striking when it is accidentally overturned on a table or counter and saved from chipping, thus reducing breakage to a minimum, indicates the correctness of the design. The shapes are the most symmetrical practical and tasty ever devised, they are pleasing to the eye and there are no unsightly bulges or distorted lines to make them be classed as freaks.

Every woman loves dainty table-ware—a table service that will indicate the refinement and taste of the owner that shows the housewife distinguished for good judgment and house-keeping ability. But usually such table ware is very costly, and has been limited in use.

The clubs and lodge rooms will appreciate sets of these glasses with the initials of the lodges thereon. And they would decorate the table of societies, etc.

A set of these beautiful Tumblers will make a handsome Xmas Gift. Any reader of the Progress may secure them by clipping the coupon below and complying with the conditions.

INITIAL TUMBLER COUPON

Six (6) of these coupons and 48c (to cover cost of handling) will entitle any reader or new subscriber of the Progress, to one set (6) Initial Tumblers as described above.

PINCHOT WILL CONTINUE FIGHT

against the kind of government that Penrose represents.

"I never knew a cause worth being beaten for occasionally, and I never was more certain of the triumph of our principles than I am today."

The interview took place in the Pinchot offices in the Real Estate Trust building, Philadelphia. These offices have been opened permanently and Mr. Pinchot's work will be conducted from them in the future. He stopped in Philadelphia Tuesday on his way to Chicago in order to look after the filing of his expense account for the campaign just closed.

Spent $49,275 in Fight

In this connection, he said:

"You may be interested to know that more than $39,000, or 80 per cent of the money I spent in the primary and general campaigns, was for publicity—that is, for postage, printing buttons and the distribution of campaign material. The total amount I spent in both campaigns was $49,275 95."

"If my expenditures are to be compared with those of other candidates, you must reckon in also what was spent for them by committees of various kinds. I do not know what Mr. Palmer spent, but I do know that what I spent is very much less than was spent by Mr. Penrose and the committees working for his election."

"I am feeling fine," he said when he was asked whether or not his rest following the election had benefited him, and he looked the picture of health.

National Executive Committee so Reports at Chicago Meeting

COMMITTEE OPPOSED TO A COMPROMISE

Vote of the Party at the November Election Totaled 1,746,000—Thirty-Seven States Represented at the Conference—Demand That Tariff be Eliminated as a Political Issue—Recent Campaign in the South Cited as Showing That Organization Made Distinct Gains—Prominent Leaders of the Party Present at the Conference at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—The Progressive party will nominate a candidate for president in 1916. Its campaign of education will be continued on the lines laid down in 1912. The party will offer no compromise, either to Republicans or Democrats, except on the one essential that the tariff must be removed from national politics.

The facts enumerated are concretely declared in a formal statement issued by George W. Perkins and Oscar King Davis, chairman and secretary, respectively, of the national executive committee, at the Blackstone Hotel, at 8 o'clock last night, as the declaration of the executive committee. The committee and other leading Progressives, representing thirty-four states, held a conference here yesterday.

Those at the Meeting
Present at this meeting were these: George W. Perkins, of New York; William Flinn, of Pennsylvania; Harold Ickes, proxy for Miss Jane Addams, of Illinois; Medill McCormick, proxy for Joseph M. Dixon, of Montana; Clarence P. Dodge, proxy for Meyer Leasing, of California; William Allen White, proxy for George C. Prentiss, of Oklahoma; Irving K. Taylor, proxy for Charles H. Thompson, of Vermont, and Walter Brown, of Ohio.

Total of 1,746,125 Votes Cast
O. K. Davis presented a tabulation of the votes of the party in the November election, showing a total of 1,746,125, divided as follows:

New England states, 70,171; middle Atlantic states, 311,290; south Atlantic, 78,736; middle west, 624,722; western states, 867,199. Only three southern states, Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana, were included in the total.

Official Statement
The official statement issued by Chairman Perkins and Secretary Davis follows:

"The executive committee of the Progressive party heard reports as to general conditions and as to the state of organization work throughout the country. Ninety-one representatives from thirty-four states were present. It was found that in the thirty-seven states where the Progressive party had tickets in the field at the last election it polled an aggregate of more than 1,750,000 votes.

National Committee Jan. 15
"To that end, the committee provided that the Progressive national committee shall be called together not later than January 15, 1916, to fix the time and place for holding the national convention of the Progressive party, and to transact such other business as may at that time come before it incidental to the presidential election of 1916.

"The industrial depression and consequent reaction against the Democratic tariff was undoubtedly the issue which primarily determined the reactionary results of the recent election. Both the Democratic and Republican parties have passed tariffs by the old method of log rolling, and the people have now successively re-judiated them both. So long as the tariff is made in politics by log rolling, there can be no stability of industrial conditions and business can have no peace.

"The way to provide stable industrial conditions and business peace is to accept the principle of protection as a fixed national policy, and to take the tariff out of politics. The Progressive party specifically declared this doctrine in its platform of 1912, and pointed out the only way to take the tariff out of politics, by the creation of a permanent non-partisan tariff commission."

"The Lure."
The first photo play from the World Film, Brady, Shubert corporation will be "The Lure," which will be shown here on Monday night. The cast is the same that played the original production in New York, and the play contains a moral that every one should see. While the play is primarily a white slave piece there is nothing that is in any way objectionable or offensive. Former Police Commissioner Bingham, New York, who was at the opening performance of the play said, "This play presents a wonderful moral lesson. I know that these conditions are true and so does every one in police circles." There will be two performances given, the first one starting at 7 o'clock.

PINCHOT WILL CONTINUE FIGHT

Emphatically Asserts That The Progressives Will Continue

WILL NOT ABANDON FRIENDS

Says the Spirit of the Party is Just as Vigorous and Devotion to Principles Just as Strong as Before the Election—Spent $49,275 in Fight.

Philadelphia, Dec. 3.—Gifford Pinchot, who, as the Washington party candidate for United States senator from Pennsylvania in the recent election, polled more than a quarter of a million votes in the face of the Republican landslide, and ran ahead of A. Mitchell Palmer, Democratic candidate, yesterday emphatically asserted that the Progressive party would continue.

He supplemented this declaration with a statement that he intends to remain in the fight, and will devote all his energies to the cause.

The statements were made in the course of an interview, to which the Progressive leader submitted upon his return to this city from his Florida vacation, and just prior to his departure for Chicago, where he is to attend the national Progressive conference today and tomorrow.

"The first thing is the Progressive conference at Chicago," said Mr. Pinchot, when asked as to his plans for the future. "Of course, there is but one thing for that conference to do, which is to make plans for the continued work of the party."

"One of the things that has most pleased me since the election is that in the immense amount of correspondence from all parts of Pennsylvania which has been coming into my office, there has not been a single letter which advocates giving up the fight."

Won't Abandon Supporters
"So far as I can see, the spirit of the Progressives is just as vigorous and their devotion to the Progressive principles just as strong as before the election. Of course, we have lost here and there a few weak brothers. Personally, I view their departure without regret. We are stronger without them."

"It is interesting to know how little discouragement these letters show. They all of them, except the doubtful ones, most of them attribute the defeat to reason, but substantially every one looks forward with real anticipation to the next fight."

"For myself, I do not propose to abandon the 270,000 voters who gave me their suffrages in the last election, and as I said on the morning of November 4, win or lose, I will keep on with the fight for the conservation of natural resources for the use of the people against the monopolies."

DUBOIS POLANDER MAY DIE FROM HIS INJURIES

As the result of a fight among some Polanders in DuBois last night about 9:30 one man, John Podolock, is confined to the hospital, where he was operated upon this morning. His condition is serious, and the Courier says the outcome is rather doubtful. Podolock is suffering from a depressed fracture of the skull, four scalp wounds and a broken and lacerated finger. The most serious injury is the fractured skull and three doctors operated upon him about one o'clock this morning.

Just before the operation was performed Andy Sponnick, another Poland, was taken into the presence of Podolock, and was identified as the assailant of the injured man. He was placed in the lock-up and will be held, pending the outcome of the wounds he is alleged to have inflicted upon Podolock.

The facts of the fight as nearly as can be learned are as follows: Podolock was in the Nelson house bar shortly before 9 o'clock last night, when Sponnick is alleged to have come in and started to quarrel with him. Sponnick was immediately told to get out of the bar-room and keep quiet. Shortly after this Podolock started for his boarding house. He had not gone far when he was attacked by someone who had a large sized rock in his hands. Whoever the assailant was, he wielded the derrick with good effect, and soon had Podolock down, but not out. The injured man managed to get to his feet and was taken to his home and went to bed.

There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. E. W. Hays, Locust street, Friday evening at 7:30.

Good evening! Better to be poor and happy than be killed in an automobile accident.

All live merchants advertise in the Progress.

Buy a Red Cross Christmas seal and prove your humanity.

There will be a slump in German mustaches after the war is over.

Let your light shine—on the principal streets of the town at night.

Open your heart as well as your pocket book in these pre-Christmas days.

Somebody sometime talked of cleaning up Clearfield, but it must have been a false alarm.

Villa says he will restore order in Mexico; probably he will, after he has killed off all of his enemies.

New York city might petition the president to send federal troops to that city to suppress the gunmen.

Another exhibition of German culture at Rheims, where the archeological museum has been destroyed by shells.

Swimming is likely to be anything but pleasant for the lame ducks which are contemplating a flight to Washington.

After the rain will come the snow, and citizens should familiarize themselves with the provisions of the snow and ice ordinance.

That German spy who was shot to death in London said before his death that he was satisfied, which might also be the opinion of his executioners.

With three kings and a president at the front in the European war the troops ought to be inspired to continue fighting each other with great enthusiasm.

By reading the store advertisements in the Progress the Christmas gift buyer will discover the stores in which such goods are sold at the most reasonable prices.

Oysters that turn pink after being opened are the latest from New Jersey, but there are still some people who turn pale when they think of eating an oyster in the nude state.

Germany demands seven millions of dollars monthly from Brussels as a war indemnity, a sum which would go far toward feeding and clothing the poor Belgians. Germany evidently keeps its humanity locked up in Berlin.

Gifford Pinchot says the Progressive party will continue to stand for the principles for which four million citizens voted in 1912, and our Republican friends can put this in their pipes and smoke it while trying to look pleasant.

Secretary Bryan has the task of his life before him in his attempt to persuade the Democratic party to adopt prohibition, although it is true that the Republicans have made inroads into the ancient Democratic policy of encouraging the disposal of mountain dew.

The Fatherland is rehearsing ancient history to prove that England had been as brutal as Germany is now in the conduct of war. This is true, but it does not excuse Germany for her methods of treating the Belgians or inviting the Mohammedans to participate in the conflict.

PALMER THE JONAH

Some Democratic editors, in belated attempts of the recent election, think that it was folly for the people to expect to defeat Senator Penrose by putting two candidates in the field against him. One editor, parroting the expressions of a higher newspaper editor, says that it was the duty of Gifford Pinchot to withdraw and let Palmer have a free course in the race against Penrose. In view of the fact that Palmer fell short some three thousand votes compared with the number received by Pinchot makes such arguments sound ridiculous.

There never was the least chance that Palmer would defeat Penrose, while there was every prospect of Pinchot winning the senatorship had Palmer listened to the voice of the better class of Democrats in the state and retired from the contest. It was Palmer and not Pinchot who aided in the election of Penrose, for thousands of Democrats who voted for Penrose to rebuke Palmer would have voted for Pinchot had Palmer's name not been on the ticket.

However, the election is over and the aftermath cannot have a very sweet taste to Democrats. So far as the Washington party is concerned, it has no apologies to make for the part it took in the campaign. Its members were honestly opposed to Penrose and none of them accepted money from the Penrose managers to help his cause as did many Democrats. What the Democrats of all factions should now do is to forget the late unpleasantness and try to explain to the people why the president and his party in congress hung the millstone of war taxes around the necks of the people of this country.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

Clearfield merchants have prepared for an extensive business during the Christmas holidays and from now until after Santa Claus pays his visits to the kiddies the local stores will be crowded with customers seeking suitable gifts for relatives or friends. And day by day the enterprising merchant will use the advertising columns of the Progress to tell the people where they may buy Christmas gifts to the best advantage.

This paper has advised the people to do their Christmas shopping early, and wishes to supplement this advice by telling them to do their Christmas shopping at Clearfield stores which advertise in the Progress. The merchant who wants your trade and does not want you to spend your money with out-of-town stores will be represented in the advertising columns of this paper. It will be to the advantage of the shopper to consult the business directory in this paper before starting out on her trip to the stores.

At this season of the year the mail order houses are especially active in soliciting the trade of the public and their offers of all kinds of goods are very alluring. Many people feel inclined to patronize these catalogue houses, but if they will stop to consider the fact that the mail order house is of no benefit to Clearfield while the local merchant spends most of his profits in helping to build up the town and employs local people as clerks and to do such other work as the merchants have to do they will decide that saving a few cents in a purchase from the mail order house is not a very wise or patriotic act.

POOR OLD FARMER

The Great White Way with joy is rife
Where cutups congregate at night.
The farmer leads a quiet life.
And early bed is his delight.

(Poor old Farmer!)

The urbane sleeps late. You see
His social duties make him do it.
The farmer snores till half past three.
Then beats the morning sunrise to it.

(Poor Old Farmer!)

The city man wears nice kid gloves
And takes a taxi round the block.
While all day long the farmer shovels
A plow, or reaps, or feeds the stock.

(Poor Old Farmer!)

The city man, he rarely stops
To think about the rainy day.
The farmer gathers in the crops
And salts three billion bucks away.

FOREST FIRES COST HALF MILLION DOLLARS

Forest fires caused a total loss of $500,000 during the eleven months of 1914, which ended Tuesday, according to estimates by the fire wardens employed by the state forestry commission. Little of the loss occurred on state-owned lands.

Figures compiled by Robert S. Conklin, the commissioner of forestry, show that a total of 231,488 acres had been burned over, but of this large area, only 10,486 acres were on state forestry reservations, although the total state acreage is a little less than 1,000,000.

During the first six months of the year, 4567 acres of state land were burned over and the timber on 67,760 acres of privately owned land was burned. During the last five months, the number of acres of state land burned over was 5929, while 163,230 acres of private land was burned over. The loss for the first six months is estimated at $131,949, and for the last six weeks, when thousands of acres of land were laid bare. These fires are all extinguished. It is estimated that the cost of extinguishing forest fires during the five months ending yesterday was $14,658.75.

The largest areas burned out during the five months' period were in Pike county where 31,000 acres to timber were destroyed; Center, with 13,382; Bradford 12,227, and Westmoreland, 9840.

The estimated area burned over in Clearfield and nearby counties and fire loss from July 1 is shown in the accompanying table:

County	State Land	Private Land	Loss
Blair	5,471	10,710
Cambria	12,227	8,919
Centre	311	13,382	19,924
Clearfield	200	1,342	7,386
Clinton	762	2,589	6,461
Elk	160	670
Indiana	455	2,295
Jefferson	66	300

BANKS WILL RECEIVE BELGIAN RELIEF FUNDS

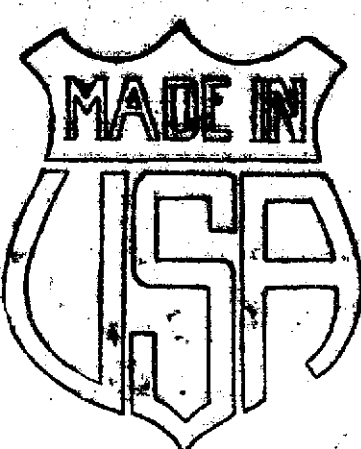

The citizens of Clearfield are asking for a place of deposit for money which will undoubtedly be given in small amounts for the relief of the Belgian war sufferers. In response to this demand the banks of Clearfield have decided to accept and forward, free of charge, all such funds.

Giving now means Christmas food for Belgian women and children who otherwise may perish from hunger and cold.

Hundreds of thousands of these destitute people face starvation and the fatal results of exposure to the harsh winter which already has set in.

CANADIANS FEAR RAID FROM UNITED STATES

Extraordinary precautions have been taken to guard against possible raid by some German sympathizers across the Niagara river. A permanent guard of 30 militiamen has been stationed at Port Erie opposite Buffalo, and the whole river front from there to Niagara Falls and Queenstown is patrolled day and night by between 600 and 600 members of the newly organized home guard regiments.

Automobiles and motorcycles are used by the men on patrol duty.

These measures, it is said, were taken in response to demands from organizations along the Canadian side of the Niagara, who insisted in communications to the department of militia that a movement similar to the Fenian raid was not a remote possibility.

BRADY TOWNSHIP WANTS NEW STATE HIGHWAY

Brady township people are entertaining hopes that the state highway commission will decide to build the section of road between Luthersburg and DuBois this coming spring. Nearly all the surveying was done several seasons ago and the officials of the department are aware of the importance of this stretch which carries more traffic of various kinds than any six miles in the county, furnishing as it does the outlet to DuBois and vicinity for the great agricultural townships of Brady, Penn and also the main route for east and west auto traffic.

SLAUGHTER OF MINERS
IN THE UNITED STATES

Washington, Dec. 2.—That peaceful industry has its horrors as well as war is shown in the casualty list of American mines and quarries for 1913, issued yesterday by the United States bureau of mines. This list gives 3,351 men killed in the year. The number of men injured was not tabulated, but it is estimated that it reaches 100,000.

Altogether in the coal mines, metal mines and quarries 1,047,010 men were employed, and the death rate for each 1,000 men engaged was 3.49, or nearly three and one-half men.

Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, director of the bureau of mines, comes forward with the statement that, taking the hazards of the industry into consideration, this list of death and injury is excessive and unnecessary, and a discredit to the industry and the country.

"With such a gruesome record as has the United States in its mining industry, it is high time something more drastic is done to bring this excessive loss of life down to a basis that will be more favorably comparable with other countries. It can be done; it should be done; and I hope that the American people will see that it is done."

Paris, Dec. 2.—In an account of the bombardment of Rheims, which has been in progress intermittently for several weeks, the Temps asserts that the "archaeological museum containing Roman Gallic and French collections has been destroyed. Tapastries by Polypersack, the Flemish workman, also were ruined.

"The factories have been damaged to such an extent that the textile industry has suffered greatly. The loss due to the destruction of cloth is estimated at 20,000,000 francs ($70,000,000).

SAGE TEA DANDY
TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair back to its natural color and make it shine again if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old-fashioned Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your lock becomes luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the way of youth. Gray-haired unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

Get a Set of 6 Initial Tumblers

These are the new thin blown glasses that represent the greatest advance in the glass working art. Blown from the best quality of lead glass, with your own initials blasted upon the side with the new process of sand blowing in which thousands of grains of sand are shuttled against the sides of the glasses; decorated with a beautiful wreath encircling the initial, applied in the same manner as the initial, they represent absolutely the last word in table ware. They are luxurious and beautiful in the extreme, though very expensive and difficult to obtain, except in a few of the metropolitan cities. These tumblers have been manufactured to supply the highest grade trade and anybody will appreciate the opportunity of obtaining a set of them under the terms of the premium offer.

The one feature of these tumblers that is especially interesting, and which supplies the reason we are enabled to extend this remarkable premium offer, lies in the fact that they are made in accordance with the latest patented non-chip rim. The fact that a tumbler with an edge, which is protected from striking when it is accidentally overturned on a table or counter and saved from chipping, thus reducing breakage to a minimum, indicates the correctness of the design. The shapes are the most symmetrical practical and tasty ever devised, they are pleasing to the eye and there are no unsightly bulges or distorted lines to make them be classed as freaks.

Every woman loves dainty table-ware—a table service that will indicate the refinement and taste of the owner that shows the housewife distinguished for good judgment and house-keeping ability. But usually such table ware is very costly, and has been limited in use.

The clubs and lodge rooms will appreciate sets of these glasses with the initials of the lodges thereon. And they would decorate the table of societies, etc.

A set of these beautiful Tumblers will make a handsome Xmas Gift. Any reader of the Progress may secure them by clipping the coupon below and complying with the conditions.

INITIAL TUMBLER COUPON

Six (6) of these coupons and 48c (to cover cost of handling) will entitle any reader or new subscriber of the Progress, to one set (6) Initial Tumblers as described above.

PINCHOT WILL CONTINUE FIGHT

against the kind of government that Penrose represents.
"I never knew a cause worth being beaten for occasionally, and I never was more certain of the triumph of our principles than I am today."
The interview took place in the Pinchot offices in the Real Estate Trust building, Philadelphia. These offices have been opened permanently and Mr. Pinchot's work will be conducted from them in the future. He stopped in Philadelphia Tuesday on his way to Chicago in order to look after the filing of his expense account for the campaign just closed.
Spent $49,275 in Fight
In this connection, he said:
"You may be interested to know that more than $39,000, or 80 per cent of the money I spent in the primary and general campaigns, was for publicity—that is, for postage, printing buttons and the distribution of campaign material. The total amount I spent in both campaigns was $49,275 95.
"If my expenditures are to be compared with those of other candidates, you must reckon in also what was spent for them by committees of various kinds. I do not know what Mr. Palmer spent, but I do know that what I spent is very much less than was spent by Mr. Penrose and the committees working for his election."
"I am feeling fine," he said when he was asked whether or not his rest following the election had benefited him, and he looked the picture of health.
